

Bishop Brian C. Greene

Bishop Brian C. Greene has served for 16 years as Senior Pastor of Pentecostal Tabernacle in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He devotes much of his and the church's efforts to working in the community in order to fulfill the mission of Pentecostal Tabernacle:

“Restoring Broken Lives to Bring Glory to God.”

Bishop Greene has traveled extensively both within the United States and abroad, including the countries of Poland, Columbia, South Africa, Ghana, and the Caribbean, all to promote the Gospel of Jesus Christ. In 2004, he released his first book, Faith is a Female, which is now in its second printing.

In June 2008, Bishop Greene successfully completed an on-campus training program at the Harvard Divinity School's Summer Leadership Institute for clergy, lay leaders, and community activists who are involved in faith-based community and economic development.

In recognition of his work in the City of Cambridge, Bishop Greene was presented with the Cambridge NAACP 2009 Community Service Award. Most recently, by the grace of God, Pentecostal Tabernacle was featured in March 2011 article published by the Associated Press in over 243 media outlets around the world for its remarkable success in attracting international students and educators from around the world. Bishop Greene and his wife Carmen, have been happily married for 28 years. They have two wonderful daughters, Vanessa and Jessica.
